CARMEN JONES: THEATRE AND DINING AT SKYLON

See Carmen Jones at the Royal Festival Hall and enjoy a two course theatre menu with interval drinks at Skylon from £65 per person

From 25 July until 2 September 2007, customers can see Carmen Jones by Oscar Hammerstein II at the newly refurbished Royal Festival Hall and enjoy a two-course pre or post theatre set meal at Skylon Bar & Grill, including a glass of house Champagne served during the interval.

Ticket prices are as follows:

Mid-priced theatre tickets with two-courses and a glass of house Champagne: £65
Top-priced theatre tickets with two-courses and a glass of house Champagne: £79.

To book this package, telephone 0871 663 2584

Skylon is conveniently situated on Level 3 of the Royal Festival Hall and offers a modern European menu with British influences; the venue offers a spectacular panorama of London's skyline, with floor to ceiling windows overlooking the River Thames.

Bizet's Carmen is one of the most well known of operatic scores; the Oscar Hammerstein II adaptation placed the story in an all-black southern American setting. Directed by Jude Kelly, Artistic Director of Southbank Centre, this fully staged production is co-produced by Southbank Centre and Raymond Gubbay.

Carmen Jones inspired Cocktails at Skylon

To accompany this musical event, Skylon Bar Manager Zoran Peric has devised a selection of cocktails; the list is as follows and each cocktail is priced at £9.50:

- Passion Daiquiri – Bacardi rum, passion fruit and lychee liqueur, lime juice
- Honey Lemon Daiquiri – Bacardi rum, lemon schnapps, cranberry and lemon juice, fresh lemongrass
- Kiwi and Cucumber Daiquiri – Appleton, kiwi schnapps, elderflower cordial, fresh lime juice, cucumber and kiwi
- Raspberry and Lychee Daiquiri - Havana 3 year old rum, lychee liqueur, lychee and lime juice, fresh raspberries, ginger and mint
