

PRESS RELEASE

LE PONT DE LA TOUR INTRODUCES SUNDAY LUNCH MENU WITH JAZZ BAND

In a new initiative starting on Mother's Day, 2 March 2008, Le Pont de la Tour restaurant in Butler's Wharf will be offering from 12-4pm a Sunday lunch menu in both the Restaurant and Bar & Grill; there will also be entertainment from a live three piece jazz band.

This competitively priced menu (under £25 for three courses) along with the restaurant's location along the River Thames with views of Tower Bridge, make it an ideal Sunday family destination; customers can take advantage of the local sights and visitor attractions and enjoy a post-prandial stroll.

The adjoining Wine Merchant and Foodstore will be open, offering tastings of food items and wines, with staff on hand to answer any questions and guide customers on their choice.
